

March LIBRARY 2022 NEWS

In our February edition we introduced you to our new Library Programs, Promotions and Operations Librarian, Sue. For this issue, you will get to know about our very busy Youth Development Officer, Deb. You may have seen her working in the Civic Centre running the Youth Space or at some of our outdoor events.

Meet Deb...

Deb has been part of the Gawler Community since 1996 and has lived in Gawler for 21 years. Her career has always involved working with young people from early childhood, OSHC, and teaching. She began working for Town of Gawler in 2011 with the OSHC then the Sport & Rec team, then onto Aquatic and Rec in 2019, and in 2020 moved into the Youth Development Officer role.

Deb is a big fan of music, skating, coffee and a good book. With her husband, she owned and operated a business in Gawler for 15 years (Gawler Records).

Deb enjoys all parts of her role especially planning and being involved with events for young people. Her role is constantly changing — always evolving — and the best part for her is getting front row seats watching the young people of Gawler have a safe place and a voice in their community. Making a difference in young people's lives is the best reward for her, being able to see the joy as they achieve and become young adults.

What a fantastic start to the Gawler Fringe! Did you get to the opening night? What are you looking forward to seeing? There is so much to see and do at the Gawler Libraries during March! Our events calendar is bursting at the seams, starting with our always popular Adelaide Writers' Week live streaming coverage at the Civic Centre Library, Fringe in the Park, adult workshops and more!

What is your favourite part of our newsletter? Would you like to see something specific included? Please let staff know, next time you're visiting us. You can also read previous copies by going to our website and downloading them as PDF copies.

OFF THE SHELF

Rethink, Refuse, Reduce, Reuse, Recycle and Repair. This month in Off the Shelf, we're focusing on Repair!

There's lots of reasons why repairing an item is a better choice than replacing it. Repairing an item is usually cheaper than replacing it, saving you money, but repairing also reduces demand for new materials and energy resources - so repairing is a big win for the planet.

Some people believe that giving an item new life through repairs strengthens your sense of connection and ownership to your belongings. Did you see the BBC program The Repair Shop? It's a great demonstration of the emotions and sentiments we give to objects and heirlooms, and how important it can be to repair such things.

Repairing often motivates us to learn a new skill, and this can be very satisfying! This is where we can help - check out these books in our catalogue that will give you the tips and tricks you might need to begin to repair some of your household items. We have items in both physical and digital formats.

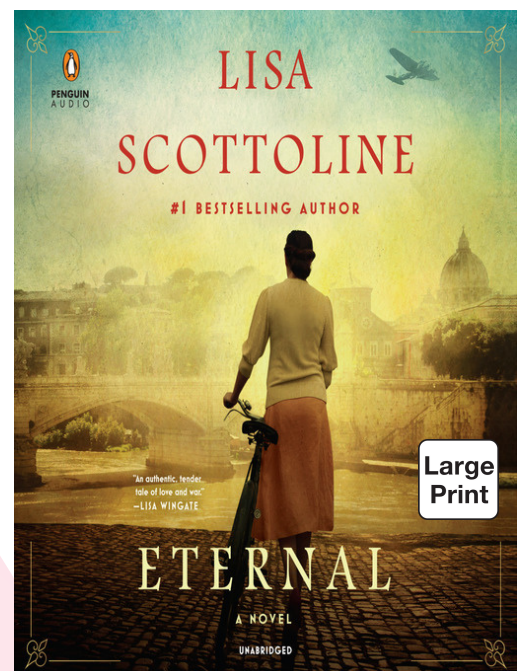

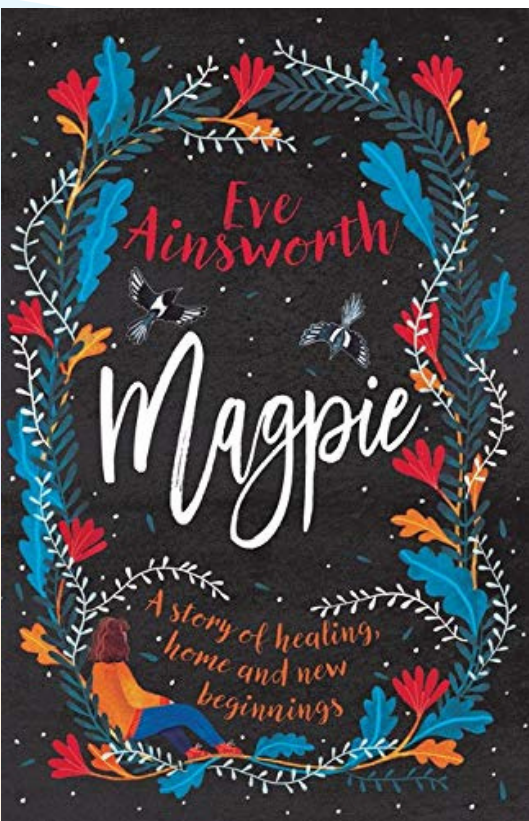

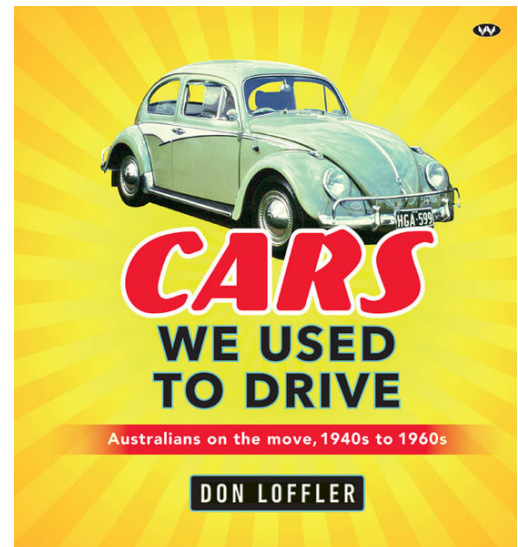

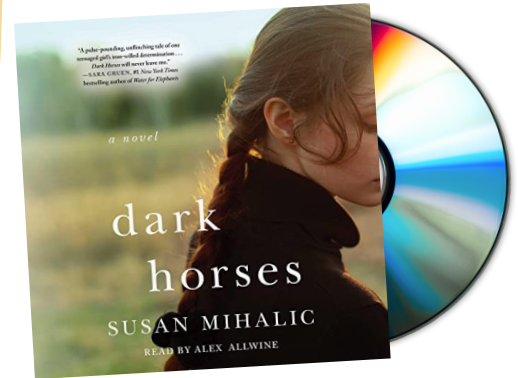

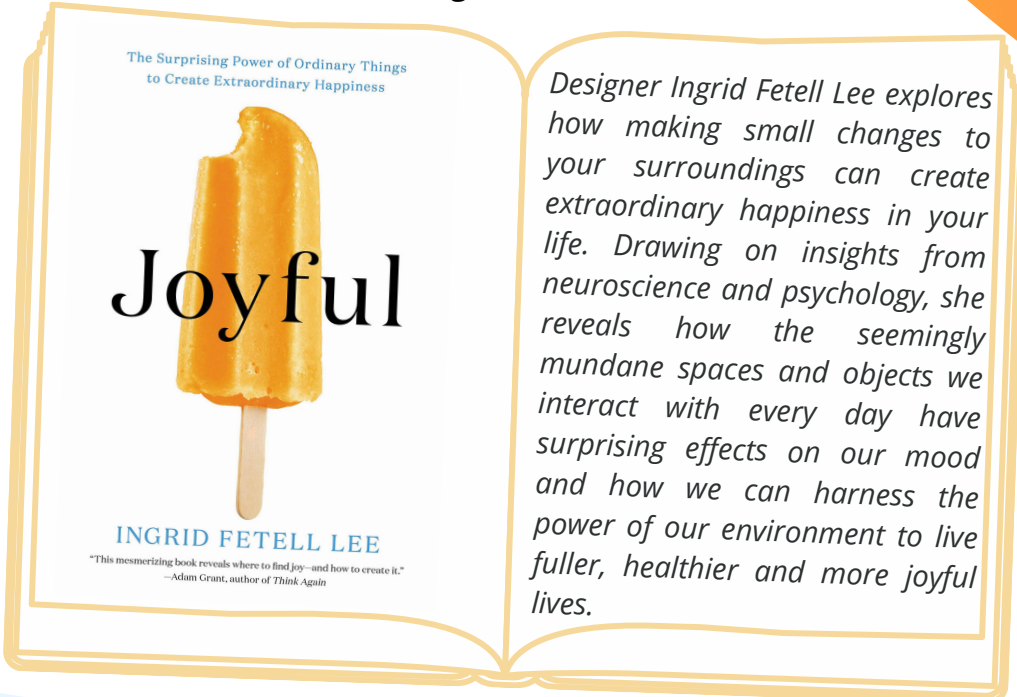

You can search our catalogue for more repair books here: <https://bit.ly/3vgiEd5>

Looking for something new to read, watch or listen to? We always have lots of new items appearing on our shelves in both of our locations: Gawler Civic Centre and Evanston Gardens.

Search our catalogue using the link below to request any of the items you see featured here.

Scott Eames

Did you catch Adelaide artist Scott Eames, in the library at the end of February? The sculptor of the new Queen Adelaide statue for the Botanic Gardens, is creating a sculpture for the Gawler Library! Scott is providing a live demonstration during February/March, in the Gawler Civic Centre Library whilst he shares his knowledge of the ancient art form of sculpture. Visitors are welcome to observe, ask questions and leave their mark in the wet clay of his sculpture. The completed sculpture will be fired and then housed in the library.

You can find many examples of Scott's work on his Instagram account www.instagram.com/scotteames\_sculptor.

He's even made a bust of our very own library staff member, Allen Tiller!

Hannah Kent

Hannah Kent is a guest speaker during this year's Adelaide Writers' Week and we thought we might shine a light on this Adelaidean.

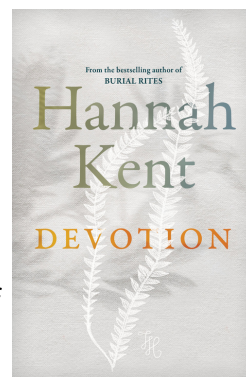

You may have seen her titles on our shelves, Burial Rites (2013), The Good People (2016) and most recently Devotion (2021).

Her debut novel, Burial Rites won many awards; ABIA Literary Fiction Book of the Year, the Indie Awards Debut Fiction Book of the Year, and the Victorian Premier's People's Choice Award and was translated into more than 30 languages! Her second novel, The Good People is currently being adapted for film.

Hannah's latest title begins in Prussia in 1836 then moves through the years and across the seas to Adelaide in 1838.

This book is a transformative story dealing with religion, relationships and the power of devotion.

MAGAZINE HIGHLIGHT

The Australian Women's Weekly magazine is one of the country's most iconic women's editorials, and has been entertaining and informing Australian women for the past 80 years. Each issue is packed full of current affairs, Royal family news, food, fashion, and stories about amazing Australian women and celebrities.

The March issue features Chrissie Swan on the cover and her feature story outlines her journey to find fun in her everyday life, and the opportunities this has provided. Sir Cliff Richard is also featured, declaring that retirement is definitely not on his agenda, despite being 81 years old!

On a different tangent, read about the 'grandparenting' journey and how to navigate this special time in your life. Skincare can be a challenge as your skin changes over time, page 127 explains methods and recommends products to care for your skin through the decades.

When you're ready to cook, how does a Middle Eastern feast sound? On page 139, you'll find recipes for incredible dishes such as roast chermoula lamb with walnut salad, spiced tahini baked fish, pink pickled turnips, and to finish with something sweet, how about orange blossom scented walnut biscuits or baked milk custard in kataifi?

Enjoy March!

EVENING READS

Australian writer and broadcaster, Benjamin Law is one of the fantastic speakers appearing on the big screen during the Adelaide Writers' Week live screening event. Held in the Gawler Civic Centre Library, you'll be able to see Benjamin on Monday 7th at 10:45am for the Growing up in Australia session. This will have multiple speakers celebrating all things diverse about this nation, by sharing their stories with the audience.

Benjamin is the author of many titles, including The Family Law in 2010, Gaysia in 2012, and editor of Growing Up Queer in Australia during 2019. Three seasons of the award-winning SBS TV series The Family Law was created and co-written by Benjamin based on his memoir. He's also contributed articles to many publications such as, Monthly, Frankie, Guardian, Monocle and Australian Financial Review as well as appearing on our TVs in many different shows, from pop culture, to documentaries and news and current affairs.

WEEKLY WIND DOWN

Mindful Knotting

This session drew its inspiration from Lise Silva Gomes' Sacred Knots: create, adorn, and transform through the art of knotting

Attendees had the opportunity to design and make a knotting board, then begin learning some decorative knots that can be used in mindful practice to still the mind and banish the stresses of the day.

A knotting board can be helpful when working with intricate knots. You may also find one handy if you like the idea of knotting on the couch, sitting in bed or out in the garden.

You can purchase cork boards relatively cheaply or make one out of cardboard, polystyrene or wood covered with foam. Cover your board with fabric of your choice and attach with glue, staples or stitches.

Completed work
from the session

If you'd like to check out other resources use the QR code to the right or this link - <https://bit.ly/3hhkiD8>, to find what we have available in our catalogue. Everything for knotting - macrame, knitting, crochet etc...

BOOKS REINVENTED

Words do change their meaning over time but here are some commonly misconstrued words.

Many people think that "prevaricate" means the same as "procrastinate".
"Procrastinate" means "to put off until tomorrow".
"Prevaricate" means "to act or speak evasively", "to deviate from the truth".

The word "conniving" is sometimes used to mean "scheming in an underhand manner".
But "conniving" means "turning a blind eye to".

The term "forensic" is often used to refer to "DNA, fingerprints and traces evidence of a crime".
However "forensic" means "to do with the law". It is used erroneously as an abbreviation of "forensic science" or "forensic medicine". It makes no sense to speak of "forensic evidence". All evidence of a crime is forensic.

"Words are such uncertain things, they so often sound well but mean the opposite of what one thinks they do."

~ Agatha Christie

TURNING OLD BOOKS INTO NEW TREASURES!

Sometimes old books are treasures to be kept for ever and re-read over and over - but sometimes they turn into clutter and we need to work out what to do with them.

In our Books Reinvented workshops, we explore ways to turn these old books into new treasures.

There are plenty of ideas online for upcycling books - some of the ones we didn't try included turn books into a clock, a knife block and even a succulent planter!

Our group of intrepid book upcycling adventurers turned old books into a cute little book clutch bag, a book shelf (literally), and used the pages (yes, we ripped them out!!!!) to create paper beads.

While it may have been daunting to break these books, we're confident that we've given them a new lease of life.

What have you 'reinvented' your old books into?

Searching on the online catalogue

LIBRARY HOW-TO

Have you ever used our catalogue to find something? There are some fantastic little tools on there that will help you with your searches.

Over the next few editions of Shelf Talk we will highlight these so you can take advantage of them and improve your results next time you go looking for something. Our first tip is that when you enter your search term and select search, the catalogue will automatically show you all results for your local library, in this instance, Gawler. If you'd like to see more options, then select the tab you see circled in image below to see the holdings for the rest of South Australia!

Why not try it out next time you're looking on our catalogue.

Like some help? Ask our staff on duty, we always love to help our customers!

We are launching our new Being Digital technology workshops here at the Gawler Libraries in March and our first topic is about learning to keep yourself and your identity safe when online.

These sessions will be held once a month on a Monday morning, with a different topic each month. Places are very limited so if you're interested you need to call the library 08 8522 9213 to book your spot.

You can bring your laptop or borrow one of ours for the duration of the workshop. Let us know when you make your booking. We look forward to seeing you soon!

DIGITAL LIBRARY

We know we many of our customers love using our digital library provider Libby, but did you also know about our other provider BorrowBox? A newer addition to our digital library options, it has a fantastic catalogue of wonderful titles to choose from.

You can use this resource for FREE with your library membership! Use the QR code below to find more information about the app or just search the app store, download the app, log in with your library card number, and get browsing. BorrowBox is nice and easy to navigate, but library staff are always happy to answer questions and provide assistance. You can even pick up a quick start guide from us next time you're visiting the library.

If you're too keen to start browsing while your app downloads, then use your desktop with the link below to view the online catalogue, although you may need the app to view/listen to some titles.

TINY TALES

FEELINGS

Tune: "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star"

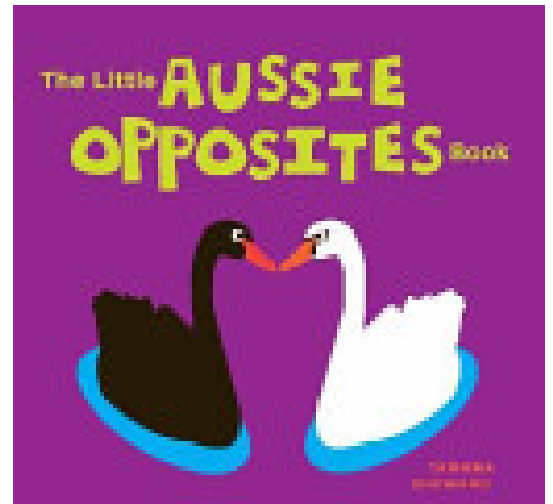

I have feelings, so do you.
Let's all sing about a few.
We get happy, we get sad.
We get scared, we get mad..
I have feelings, so do you.
We just sang about a few

Open, shut them.
Open, shut them.
Give a little clap.
Open, shut them.
Open, shut them.
Place them in your lap.

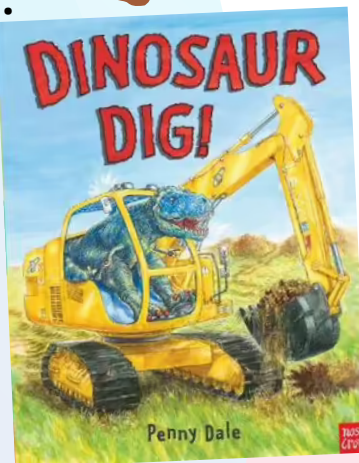

(Row Row row your boat)
Love, love, love your friends.
Different as they seem.
Laughing, playing, joking, helping.
True friends are like a dream.

The dinosaurs were playing
In the prehistoric swamp.
They shook their heads,
Swished their tails,
And did the dino stomp,
Stomp, stomp, stomp.

Dance dino, dance dino,
Stomp stomp stomp.
Dance dino, dance dino,
Stomp stomp stomp.

KIDS CREATE

Make a leprechaun pen holder for
St. Patrick's Day

1. Cut out both pieces.
2. Trace arms and feet onto another piece of paper or light card. Cut it out and glue it onto back leprechaun.
3. Colour front of leprechaun.
4. Turn it over and draw and colour hands and boots.
5. Bend the leprechaun until legs and arms slightly overlap. Staple together.
6. Fold and glue circular base into position.

Book Week 2022

Every year, the Children's Book Council of Australia (CBCA) announce their notables list in the lead up to the awards announced at the beginning of Book Week in August this year. The library makes every endeavour to acquire these titles for our collection over the two locations so that you and your children can enjoy these notable books together.

This year Book Week will have the theme, Dreaming with eyes open... and occur between 20-26 August 2022. Keep your eyes on us later this year when we start promoting our Book Week activities for the library.

If you'd like to see the whole notables list - use this link... <https://bit.ly/33NfB00>

FUN IN THE LIBRARY

at the Evanston Gardens Library

"This was the BEST EVER!"

Community feedback on the event

"Was a great morning out. 2 very happy boys. Thank you to all who helped set it up!"

"People spend a fortune on play equipment for their kids and all they really need is some dirt and some water!"

On the Tuesday 2nd February, our library out at Evanston Gardens was visited by some special guests trucks from the depot in Willaston for a fun Tiny Tales session. This was thoroughly enjoyed by all attendees and staff alike! We can't wait to hold more special sessions like this in the future, so keep up-to-date with what's on at the library by following our account on Eventbrite.
